

Childhood Arrivals Support and Advocacy (CASA) Program

CASA supports young people (up to 25 years) living in Ontario without immigration status, or with precarious immigration status.

CASA services are free and confidential.

CASA is a program of Justice for Children and Youth Legal Clinic (JFCY). JFCY is a non-profit legal aid clinic that provides legal assistance to eligible children and youth.

To contact CASA call JFCY:
416-920-1633 / 1-866-999-JFCY
(5329)

or visit www.jfcy.org/en/casa/
or email: info@jfcy.org

CASA is funded and supported by:

CASA's Services:

Immigration legal advice and representation

Support in accessing education and healthcare

Education sessions for young people and people working with young people

Systems change to address barriers for young people without status

